Recent Weddings.

Aubin-Boucher.

A very pretty wedding occurred Tuesday morning at Notre Dame church, when Miss Exilia Boucher of this place became the bride of J. George Aubin of Lyndonville. The ceremony was performed by Father Marceau before a large number of relatives and friends.
The bride was charmingly gowned in white messaline and carried white flowers.
Her sister, Miss Rosanna Boucher, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a blue gown and carried blue flowers. The groom's brother, Charles Aubin, of Lyndonville, was best man. Music was furnished by the Gagnon family, assisted by Miss Emma Lavigne. Following the wedding ceremony a reception and dinner was held at the home of the bride's father on St. Mary's street. They received a large number of presents, including $25 from her father and a cut glass pitcher and tumblers from the clerks at Lougee and Smythe's store, where the bride has been employed for the past five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubin left on the afternoon train for Manchester and Haverhill for a week's trip. Upon their return they will reside at Lyndonville, where the groom is employed as a plumber.
